DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.
2. The following guidelines illustrate the preferred layout for the specification of a utility application. These guidelines are suggested for the applicant's use.

Arrangement of the Specification

As provided in 37 CFR 1.77(b), the specification of a utility application should include the following sections in order. Each of the lettered items should appear in upper case, without underlining or bold type, as a section heading. If no text follows the section heading, the phrase "Not Applicable" should follow the section heading:

- (a) TITLE OF THE INVENTION.
- (b) CROSS-REFERENCE TO RELATED APPLICATIONS.
- (c) STATEMENT REGARDING FEDERALLY SPONSORED RESEARCH OR DEVELOPMENT.
- (d) INCORPORATION-BY-REFERENCE OF MATERIAL SUBMITTED ON A COMPACT DISC (See 37 CFR 1.52(e)(5) and MPEP 608.05. Computer program listings (37 CFR 1.96(c)), "Sequence Listings" (37 CFR 1.821(c)), and tables having more than 50 pages of text are permitted to be submitted on compact discs.) or REFERENCE TO A "MICROFICHE APPENDIX" (See MPEP § 608.05(a). "Microfiche Appendices" were accepted by the Office until March 1, 2001.)
- (e) BACKGROUND OF THE INVENTION.
 - (1) Field of the Invention.
 - (2) Description of Related Art including information disclosed under 37 CFR 1.97 and 1.98.
- (f) BRIEF SUMMARY OF THE INVENTION.
- (g) BRIEF DESCRIPTION OF THE SEVERAL VIEWS OF THE DRAWING(S).
- (h) DETAILED DESCRIPTION OF THE INVENTION.
- (i) CLAIM OR CLAIMS (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (j) ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE (commencing on a separate sheet).
- (k) SEQUENCE LISTING (See MPEP § 2424 and 37 CFR 1.821-1.825. A "Sequence Listing" is required on paper if the application discloses a nucleotide or amino acid sequence as defined in 37 CFR 1.821(a) and if the required "Sequence Listing" is not submitted as an electronic document on compact disc).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

5. Regarding claims 1-3, the phrase "or the like" renders the claim(s) indefinite because the claim(s) include(s) elements not actually disclosed (those encompassed by "or the like"), thereby rendering the scope of the claim(s) unascertainable. See MPEP § 2173.05(d).

6. Claims 8 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite in that it fails to point out what is included or excluded by the claim language. This claim is an omnibus type claim.

Claim Objections

7. Claims 5-7 and 9 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c) as being in improper form because a multiple dependent claim should not refer to other claims in the alternative only or cannot depend from any other multiple dependent claim. See MPEP § 608.01(n). Accordingly, the claims have not been further treated on the merits.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claim 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Watabe et al. (US 6,731,331).

Regarding Claim 1, Watabe et al teaches a camera system (fig. 2) comprising a camera (28), a GPS (Global Positioning System) receiver which serves accurately to identify the position of the digital camera in at least two horizontal dimensions (col. 10, line 2; see also fig. 19), and a data store (43) for a camera image produced, wherein the digital image stored is annotated or labeled with data identifying camera position at the time of image capture (see elements 113 and 114; col. 10, lines 30-65). Although Watabe et al teaches a video camera, official notice is taken that using digital cameras are notoriously well known in the art. Since Watabe et al teaches the video camera apparatus sends the image data (113) and digital associated data (114) to a remote location (col. 10, lines 59-65), it would have been obvious to include a digital camera such that digital information is sent at the same time. This provides easier transmission and processing of the images and association data for display. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to include a digital camera for the purpose of capturing digital images for processing and manipulation.

Claim 2 is analyzed and discussed with respect to Claim 1, with the further limitation of a camera system suitable for airborne use in which Watabe et al teaches (such as a helicopter 3), camera altitude determination means (23), and wherein the digital image stored is annotated or labeled with GPS data identifying camera position at the time of image capture (see elements 113 and 114; col. 10, lines 30-65), and data appertaining to camera altitude above ground at the time of image capture by the digital camera (col. 10, lines 21-65).

Claim 3 is analyzed and discussed with respect to Claim 2, with the further limitation a camera attitude determination (23; see also fig. 19; col. 9, lines 65-col. 10, line 2), and wherein the image stored is annotated or labeled with data appertaining to camera attitude in elevation and azimuth at the time of image capture, and data appertaining to camera altitude above ground at the time of image capture by the digital camera (col. 10, lines 21-65).

Regarding Claim 4, Watabe et al teaches the GPS serves to identify the position of the camera in three dimensions (latitude, longitude and altitude; see fig. 19) so as to provide the data appertaining to camera altitude above ground at the time of image capture by the digital camera (col. 9, lines 65-col. 10, line 2).
